WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 17, 196.

Indicted for Biackmailing.

After the examination of many witnesses, the grand jury of the Corporation Court in Charlottesville yesterday afternoon completed its consideration of the cases against F. C. Duncan, Henry S. Michie, and John S. Hawkins, charged with blackmailing and extorting money from the late Robert D. Ballantine, and returned true bills against them jointly and individually.

Fourteen indictments were found against the three men for conspiracy and the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, extertion, and seven against each one in- restoring health and strongth. Model cures dividually, making in all a total of indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach while all these indictments will not be used, it was the intention of the Commonwealth's Attorney to have them found Digests What You Eat IAMITON & CO., so that he could exercise later his own option in the matter.

Hawkins and Michie, along with Ja Antoni Ambrozelli, who was Monday indicted for assault, will be arranged be- Ask for the 1906 Kodol Almanac and

It developed in the evidence before the grand jury that, instead of there being only one check of $4,000 given by Bai lantine to F. C. Duncan, and placed in the Jefferson National Bank safety deposit box of H. K. Hawth rne, as was brought out at the prel minary trial, there were three checks for this amount. These checks were said to have been dated in January, April, and June of the present year, dated ahead in antici, pation of Ballantine's income. In addition to these future checks, aggregating $12,000, there were produced two checks for $1,000 each, payable to Duncan, and collected by him about the middle of November last, about the time at which the alleged conspiracy is said to have occurred. There was also a check of $100, dated October 5, indorsed to Hawkins by Ballantine. This makes a total of $14,100 involved in the alleged lackmailing case.

Murders and Suicides.

Lester Donawitz, aged twenty-two ears, a machinist, of Philadelphia, yesterday shot and fataily wounded his Viola, attempted to kill Mrs. Alice Nicoslemi, proprietress of a boarding house, with whom the couple boarded, and then committed suicide by sho ting himself in the head. Jealousy is said to have prompted the crime. Donawitz is a night worker. When he returned home yesterday he found his wife and Mrs. Nicoslemi in the dining. He accused his wife of infidelity, and in the quarrel which ensued he shot her in the abdomen. He fired at Mrs. Nicoslemi, but his aim was bad, and the bullet missed its mark. Donawitz then turned the weapon upon himself. W. P. Brandt, Monday night, at Elk River, Minn., shot and killed his wife and Justin Adams, a neighbor, and then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Jealousy is given as the cause of the tregedy.
